SECTION II – DEFINITIONS

As used in this Procedure, the capitalized terms and acronyms have the meanings set out in: (a) the World Bank Group Policy: Personal Data Privacy; (b) the Bank Directive: Personal Data Privacy Request and Review Mechanism; or (c) set out below:

1. Privacy Portal: The Bank's IT system for administering Privacy Self-Assessments, Data Protection Impact Assessments, Records of Processing Activity and handling Requests for Information.
2. Process Owner: The Staff responsible for a business activity that includes Processing of Personal Data. A Process Owner is determined by the factual circumstances, without regard to the Staff's position or grade level. The business activity may be a one-time activity or an ongoing program-based activity.

SECTION III – SCOPE

A. Admissibility of a Request for Information.

A Request for Information is admissible if:

1. It is submitted by the Data Subject or, where otherwise impossible, by their duly authorized representative in writing and in English language via the Privacy Portal, specifying:
 - a. Any prior contact with or exposure to the Bank to support the retrieval of information;
 - b. In case of Staff Data Subjects, if a request for available information through the Human Resource self-service portal (myHR) or other personnel administration self-service applications available to Staff has been made prior to submitting a Request for Information.
 - c. The information sought in accordance with Section III.B, paragraph 1 of the Bank Directive Personal Data Privacy Request and Review;
 - d. The reasons justifying the Data Subject's need for representation if applicable.
2. The Data Subject's identity is sufficiently established;
3. It is consistent with Section III.A, paragraph 2(c) of the Bank Directive Personal Data Privacy Request and Review Mechanisms,;
4. It is not excluded according to Section III.A, paragraph 1 of the Bank Directive Personal Data Privacy Request and Review.

B. Admissibility of a Call for Review

A Call for Review is admissible if:

1. Made formally and in English language by the Data Subject or by their duly authorized representative demonstrating the Data Subject's reasonable belief of a violation of Principles 1 – 6 and 7 (b)(i) of the Privacy Policy and noting a previous unsuccessful request to the Bank, where feasible, to correct the violation;
2. The identity of the Data Subject is sufficiently established;
3. It is consistent with Section III.A, paragraph 2(c) of the Bank Directive: Personal Data Privacy Request and Review Mechanisms;
4. It is not excluded according to Section III.A, paragraph 1 of the Bank Directive: Personal Data Privacy Request and Review Mechanism.
5. As the case may be, the Data Subject:
